

Where Business Travel Is Going

- > Global: Implemented in over 40 countries and growing
- > Easy: Award-winning, leisure-designed traveler interface
- > Integrated: Flexible integration with any enterprise system
- > Personal: Unmatched service and support around the globe
- > Adaptable: Young technology and flexible development platform

About Us

GetThere® is one-hundred percent committed to corporate online travel. We've combined over a decade of experience and innovation to provide the best in online travel booking tools to traveling employees.

Backed by the combined resources of Sabre Holdings® corporation, a leading Global Distribution System (GDS), and Travelocity®, one of the world's leading leisure booking sites, the people and the products at GetThere bring both the best in technology and travel to corporations all over the world.

Corporate travel managers and procurement managers know travel is the second most controllable spend for an organization. This means your corporation's travel policy, and the way you manage it, significantly impact the bottom line.

Designed For Savings

By choosing to work with GetThere in implementing an online travel program, corporations experience immediate savings and added value:

- > Companies quickly realize average online travel savings of 20 percent
- > Corporate travel managers ensure travel policies are set – and followed
- > Travelers experience an easy-to-use booking tool, increasing online adoption and savings

GetThere customers report an average of 14 percent savings on airfares online and 49 percent savings on agency fees online – approximately $100 per trip. And, we've achieved the industry's highest online adoption rates. Most customers see 50 percent adoption within the first months, and others have ultimately reached adoption rates of 90 percent or more.

Serving the World's Leading Corporations

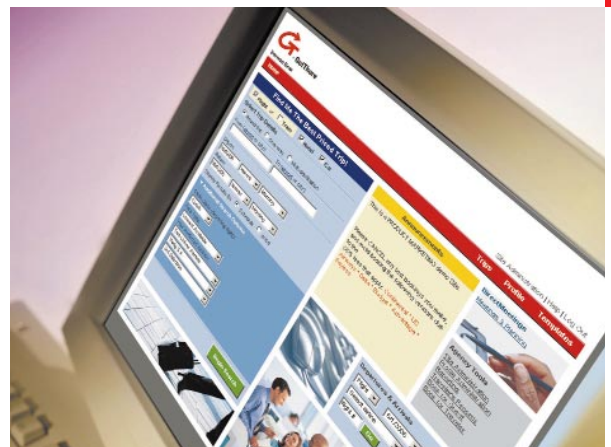

GetThere's proven success story includes the largest and most successful corporations and travel agencies. Our corporate customer base represents billions in annual travel expenditures.

- > More than 3,000 companies worldwide
- > More than 500 companies based outside North America
- > A majority of the FORTUNE 200
- > A majority of the Business Travel News Corporate Travel 100
- > Global operations throughout North America, Asia-Pacific, Europe and Latin America

Feature Rich

Every GetThere feature is created with savings, efficiency and ease-of-use in mind.

- > Capabilities to work with any travel agency and global distribution system (GDS)
- > Options to access travel sources via the Web and direct supplier connections
- > Complete travel management and site administration capabilities
- > Integrated corporate meeting planning to capture unmanaged travel spend
- > The most flexible system available with capabilities for extensive customization
- > A continually enhanced interface, ensuring an easy, leisure-like traveler booking experience
- > Key time-and-money saving features, including holds, exchanges and more

GetThere Products at a Glance

- > GetThere DirectCorporate – Enables 24x7 access to air, car, hotel and rail reservations, creating cost savings and compliance with corporate travel policies.
- > GetThere DirectMeetings – Generates significant savings on every corporate meeting – no matter the size – by providing planners with powerful tools previously only available to meeting professionals.
- > GetThere DirectMidMarket – Brings the cost savings of GetThere DirectCorporate to smaller and medium-sized companies.
- > GetThere DirectGovernment – Helps government agencies save money with a solution customized for their needs.
- > GetThere Solution Kits – Allows companies to extensively customize GetThere DirectCorporate, resulting in exact solutions to their travel challenges.

Products

GetThere DirectCorporate

With its complete travel management capabilities, the GetThere DirectCorporate™ product offers clients the industry's leading online booking and meeting planning program. Using the DirectCorporate web site, travelers can book flights, rental cars, hotel rooms and rail travel and more, 24x7.

GetThere DirectCorporate:

- > Streamlines and Automates Travel Booking – Employees can take control of their travel needs by booking online, while remaining within corporate travel policies.
- > Integrates with Existing Systems – Information flows seamlessly between DirectCorporate and the company's travel agency systems, GDS and supplier host reservation systems.
- > Strengthens Supplier Relationships – Travel managers can set and monitor contract commitments online. In addition, employees can be restricted or encouraged to use specific airlines or other suppliers.
- > Encourages Travel Policy Compliance – Reservations are more frequently in compliance with corporate travel policies. What's more, lower fares are suggested when they are available, encouraging employees to choose the best price.
- > Enables Broad Customization – Travel managers can choose from thousands of custom features that can be enjoyed by every user in the company.
- > Offers a Wide Range of Travel Content – With DirectCorporate, companies can access a broad selection of travel sources, including multi-GDS, web sites and direct supplier connections.
- > Combines Power with Ease – A unique partnership between GetThere and Travelocity enables GetThere to deliver an online booking tool with an enhanced user interface that's more like popular leisure travel.

GetThere DirectMidMarket

For smaller companies, GetThere DirectMidMarket™ online booking solution offers the same cost savings of GetThere DirectCorporate. This easy-to-use online booking system is available through our network of Authorized Reseller Partners.

GetThere DirectGovernment

Government agencies need to save money while ensuring that travel takes place within government guidelines. To accomplish these two key goals, government agencies can access GetThere DirectGovernment™, a product customized specifically for their needs.

The descriptions of the features and functions provided in this document are for informational purposes only and are not intended as a warranty of capability or performance. GetThere reserves the right to delete or modify the described function or features at any time prior to the release.

GetThere
3150 Sabre Drive
Southlake, Texas 76092

Call us at 800 850 3906 or visit www.getthere.com.

GetThere Where business travel is going.